

Picture Processing Questions

Developed by NEIU HPERA Adventure Education Students

Edited by Chris Cavert, Ed.D.

Get To Know You Questions (at the beginning or throughout a program):

- What card best represents you at this time in your life?
- Which card represents something about you?
- To you, what card represents strength?
- What is the most interesting card you see? Why do you think so?
- Which card represents a memorable event in your life?
- Which card represents an inspiration in your life?
- What card reminds you of a time you overcame a situation that you thought you couldn't get through?

Processing Questions (after an activity or program):

- What card represents your favorite part of the last activity?
- Which card represents a feeling you had at some point during the activity?
- Which card represents the direction your team is/was going?
- Choose a card that helps you describe the way your team/group worked together.
- Choose a card that reminds you of good (or even bad) leadership qualities.
- What card represents something that was challenging for you during the activity?
- What card represents something that would have made the activity easier for you?
- Choose a card that represents something that worked well for you during the activity.
- What card represents good qualities of leadership?
- What card represents something that can get in the way of good leadership?
- Choose a card that represents something about good communication.

Processing Questions With Follow-Ups

- To you, which card best represents communication? Follow-Up: What was good about your communication? What could have been better about your group's communication?
- Which card reminds you of an obstacle you had to overcome today? Follow-Up: How were you/was the group able to overcome that obstacle?
- Which card best describes the group's mood during the activity? Follow-Up: How did these moods effect the activity?
- Which card represents something about your favorite activity? Follow-Up: What made it your favorite?
- Choose one card that positively relates to the activity/program and one card that negatively related to the activity/program? Follow-Up: Explain the reasons for your choices.
- Choose a card that represents something you learned about one or more of your classmates during the program. Follow-Up: If you feel comfortable sharing, who are the people you learned something about today?
- What card represents an aspect of good teamwork? Follow-Up: A lot of people think teamwork is important. What is your opinion about this?

Picture Processing Questions

Developed by NEIU HPERA Adventure Education Students

Edited by Chris Cavert, Ed.D.

Processing Questions With Variations

- (Purposefully or Randomly Pick a Card) How does this card apply to your team/group?
- (Group Effort) Which card(s) best represent(s) the characteristics your group needed to be successful during the activities?
- (Group Effort) Which cards best represent your group's process/methods/strategies used during the activities?

Possible Wrap-Up Processing Questions

- In your mind, which card best represents your group at the beginning of the activity/program?
- Which card best represents your group at the end of the activity/program?
- Which card reminds you of a positive experience today?
- Pick a card that shows (or represents) something you have learned today.
- What card represents something memorable from your experience today?
- What card reminds you of a feeling you had during one of the activities today?
- Choose a card that symbolizes something you learned today.
- Choose a card that represents something you did to help your classmates today.
- How can something from today's program benefit you in your classroom?